Islands' camps in Indonesia!

Dates: July 2-24, 2013

Team Leaders: Jim Baugh, an international trainer with Indopartners and Global Training Network, and Chris Krosky, who has been on the last two summer camps.

Program: You will help run two camps for elementary and high school-age students on the islands of Bangka and Batam.

Aim: To support Christian schools who seek to impact children from different religious backgrounds with the good news of Jesus. You will also enjoy this beautiful country and learn what God is doing in the largest Muslim-majority country in the world.

International Team: You will be part of an international team as Indopartners is recruiting STM workers from the UK and Australia to join the team.

Cost: Around $2800

Training & rest

The first three days in Indonesia will include orientation and specialist training in child evangelism. All participants will be encouraged to contribute to the team according to their gifts, experience and skills. The final three days will involved relaxing in a holiday hotel. Time will also be given for debriefing before returning to the States.

Other opportunities

The team will also be involved in aspects of teacher training, English conversation classes, church ministries and getting to know and interact with Indonesian hosts. These options will be discussed before leaving the USA.

Orientation

Indopartners will give cultural orientation for all those who go on the STM trip. Support will be given to ensure all medical and legal requirements are met before and during the mission trip.
